

House Resolution No. 381

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the management and employees of MFA, Inc. in Columbia, Missouri, for their generosity to the servicemen and women serving in Iraq and in Afghanistan; and

Whereas, MFA, Inc. management and employees put forth a tremendous amount of effort this past holiday season when they decided to make Christmas special for those serving our country overseas; and

Whereas, the management and employees went to work selecting names of local family members with servicemen and women serving in Iraq and in Afghanistan; and

Whereas, they researched the individual service member's needs, purchased gifts and supplies, and then packaged and shipped the gifts for Christmas delivery; and

Whereas, because of the unwavering commitment and generosity of MFA, Inc. employees and management, our troops in Iraq and Afghanistan were able to enjoy a brighter Christmas holiday:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our utmost appreciation to the management and employees of MFA, Inc. for their extraordinary acts of kindness to those dedicated men and women who courageously defend this country each day; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for MFA, Inc. in Columbia, Missouri.
